THE THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME-OCTOBER 26, 2025

This weekend (October 25th/26th), the Church celebrates the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Entering into the last four weeks of Ordinary Time, our readings seemingly become more bleak as the liturgical year draws to an end. Next weekend will even appropriately continue this theme as we celebrate the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed and our readings are taken from those prepared for the Mass of Christian Burial.

This bleakness, however, is not meant to fill us with darkness, but light. In recognizing the fallenness of man and the pain of death, we are to be shaken free from any hold of this passing world and reminded of eternity. This is why these coming weeks, as sullen as they might be, ultimately culminate in the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. To quote that proverb first attributed to Thomas Fuller: "It is darkest before the dawn."

CONSECRATION TO ST. JOSEPH

As we near the end of our 150th Parish Anniversary, we are approaching a pivotal moment for our parish family. To end our celebrations, I invite you to participate in our upcoming parish-wide 33-Day Consecration to St. Joseph, our parish patron. In an act of consecration, we give ourselves to Jesus Christ by committing ourselves to respond to His grace through the guidance and care of a particular Saint, or, in this instance, St. Joseph.

In learning about the life of St. Joseph, we learn about the virtues that make him a "just man" (Matthew 1:19). In placing ourselves in his care, we imitate the Lord Himself who likewise entrusted Himself to the care and guidance of St. Joseph as His foster-father. We will begin our preparation on the weekend of November 8th/9th and conclude with the public Act of Consecration at the end of our parish Forty Hours Devotion on December 10th.

In preparation, we will use the "Consecration to St. Joseph" by Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC. This work offers 33 days of reflections on the various titles associated with St. Joseph from the Litany of St. Joseph. Each reflection is itself only two pages, while also providing additional material for further reflection if desired. Finally, each day concludes with praying the Litany of St. Joseph.

GENERAL CAMPUS MAINTENANCE

In addition to the current maintenance on our pews, we've had several other projects recently completed on our campus. This past summer, the portico in front of our main church doors was accidentally damaged when a vehicle over the clearance height attempted to drive underneath. Ron Banter Plastering of Poneto was able to repair the damage and repaint the portico this past week.

At the end of September, Dunwiddie Heating, A/C & Plumbing performed bi-annual maintenance on our heating system in anticipation of the cold. Much to my personal dismay, everything was in good order and our heating system is now turned on. Finally, a team from Felger Electric, led by parishioner Andy Vachon, "wired" our Archangel Gabriel bell in front of the Church, which now wonderfully rings out the Angelus hours throughout the week.

A special "Thank You!" to all those who assisted with these projects!

CELEBRATION OF ALL SAINTS AND COMMEMORATION OF ALL SOULS

As a reminder, the Solemnity of All Saints is not a holy day of obligation this year as it falls on a Saturday. We can still view it, however, as a holy day of opportunity to assist at Mass in celebration of the Saints in heaven. We will offer two Masses this Saturday, November 1st at 8:00 AM and 11:00 AM for the Solemnity of All Saints. Following the 11:00 AM Mass, join us in the Parish Social Hall for our annual All Saints Day Party and Potluck!

Falling on Sunday, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed will take precedence over Ordinary Time this year. In addition to our normal weekend Mass schedule (Saturday Vigil at 5:00 PM; Sunday at 7:30 AM and 10:00 AM), we will offer an additional Mass on Sunday (November 2nd) outside at St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery at 1:00 PM. All are welcome to join us as we continue to pray for our dearly departed loved ones.
