RENOVATION UPDATES - THE END IS NIGH?

This past Tuesday, we were scheduled for our “punch list” walk-through with our team from Shawnee Construction. For the second time, however, this walk-through was cancelled and rescheduled for this coming week. As this walk-through is necessary to identify any remaining, incomplete, damaged, or incorrect work that must be fixed before closing out our project, this additional delay is another unexpected setback in our schedule.

This means that our hope to be fully back in the sanctuary by next weekend will most likely not be met. This hope was contingent on the walk-through having occurred this past Tuesday, which would allow nearly two weeks for any needed work to be completed. With this additional delay, we will remain in our continuing arrangement for just a bit longer. A bit inconvenient, yes; But, better for the work to be done correctly than quickly.

In Deuteronomy 34:1-4, we hear how Moses sees the Promised Land atop Mount Nebo. In this moment, we are spiritually united with Moses: With the removal of the dust screen this past Monday, we can now “peak around the veil” and see the beauty of the work being completed, even as we cannot yet enter that sacred space. Instead, we are being given the opportunity to grow in patience until we receive the “all clear” to reenter the sanctuary.

LITURGICAL AND ALTAR ARRANGEMENTS

As we continue to prepare for Masses to resume in the sanctuary, I have been contemplating our use of liturgical arrangements over the past few months. Since January, our daily Masses have made use of the ad orientem altar arrangement; Likewise, the same has been true for our weekend Masses since the sanctuary flooring work began in July. Prior to this, we exclusively used the versus populum altar arrangement at all Masses.

In one of his last apostolic letters, Pope Francis reminded us that “every aspect of the liturgical celebration must be carefully tended to (space, time, gestures, words, objects, vestments, song, music...).” The reason for such care, he explains, is so that the faithful are not “robbed of what is owed to them: the Paschal Mystery celebrated according to the ritual that the Church sets down.” (Desiderio desideravi, Para. 23)

Taking this sentiment of our late Holy Father, Pope Francis, into account with an understanding that the richness of the Church does allow for both altar arrangements, I would like to make room for both in our regular liturgical schedule. We generally offer nine Masses each week (three weekend Masses and six weekdays). I am considering that one weekend and one weekday Mass will be offered ad orientem and the remaining seven Masses versus populum.

Looking at our current schedule, I am leaning towards our 8:30 AM Friday daily Mass and 10 AM Sunday weekend Mass being the two Masses offered ad orientem and our five other daily Masses and 5 PM Saturday Vigil and 7:30 AM Sunday weekend Masses offered versus populum. This allows variety to our liturgical schedule and multiple options for personal preference.

One thing to keep in mind with personal preference is that it is exactly that: a preference. We may find certain liturgical practices helpful to our prayer life, but this does not make other practices “right” or “wrong.” The Church permits a variety of practices. My hope is that we can approach both arrangements with the care that the Church asks of us: with patience toward one another and our attention ultimately fixed on the Lord whom we have come to worship.

STUFF-THE-TRUCK - ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Next weekend (October 3rd/4th), we will be partnering with the St. Vincent de Paul Society of Decatur for a “Stuff-the-Truck” event. This event helps to support the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store Ministry of our neighboring parish, St. Mary of the Assumption, in nearby Decatur, to provide clothing and furniture for those in need. There will be a bulletin insert next weekend with more information regarding donations, what is being asked for, etc.... ~Fr. David
